

From the Philathon Class.

The Tuesday evening, the 28th of March, the Philathon class met at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Brown, for the purpose of planning for an entertainment. The class was well represented and after discussion it was decided to give a fish fry at Four Blough on Tuesday evening, the 29th day of March, at which an invitation was extended to the business class. When the business session was over, Mrs. Brown, our guest and interest president, served delicious refreshments. The evening was pleasantly spent and enjoyed by all and is one long to be remembered by the class.

According to pre-arrangements, the two classes assembled at the First Baptist church shortly after 8 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of going in a body to the lake. Wagons, and street cars, had been provided to furnish conveyance for the group. Upon the arrival at the church of the women, a committee, consisting of Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Eggen, decorated the harness and wagon with white and blue bunting. Then the committee presented each member of the two classes with a beautiful white and blue ribbon bow, the Philathon colors.

Everything being in readiness, all started for the lake. The wagons were arranged as to form a kind of procession. The joyful crowd joined in song, story and laughter all along the way. We are glad to report that there was only one serious accident occurring en route to the lake. In arranging seats in the wagon in which Mrs. John A. Wray was a passenger, the committee never thought to place on the opposite side of the wagon some one heavy enough to balance the weight of Mrs. Wray; so, in passing over a rough place in the road, Mrs. Wray's extreme weight caused the wagon to tip and she was caught between the wagon and the body of the wagon and a hole about thirteen inches in length was torn in his Sunday coat pocket. It was only by Mrs. Wray, it was then decided to request the Ladies' Sewing Club to mend his coat at their next regular meeting.

Upon arriving at the lake, the crowd engaged in various kinds of amusement, such as singing, story telling, strolling, and playing drop the handkerchief. Mrs. C. H. Brown, Mrs. D. Y. Byrd, Mrs. J. H. Brown, Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Woodard were the leaders.

After 7 o'clock a beautiful feast was served for the enjoyment of the group, who were thoroughly prepared to enjoy in reality it and to do ample justice to every dainty. Fish was abundant. The fish had been provided by Mrs. C. H. Brown. There were trout and bass representing about eighty-five pounds and the following honors were awarded: For the best all-around fish, Mrs. C. H. Brown and Mrs. Lane; the best bass, Mrs. W. A. Hasty; the best blue gill, Mrs. A. H. Blackman; the best catfish, Mrs. J. Carter, who also received one-half of the fish; the best shiner, Mrs. K. M. Brown; the best perch, Mrs. W. R. Wilford; the best sunfish (three days); the best bass, Mrs. F. L. Tucker; the best blue gill, Mrs. C. H. Brown; the best catfish, Mrs. C. H. Brown; the best shiner, Mrs. C. H. Brown; the best sunfish, Mrs. C. H. Brown. The best candidates are not satisfied with results and have issued a formal challenge for another contest to be pulled off in the near future.

After the crowd dispersed. While there are various rumors of accidents and disturbances as a result of the dispersion of the fish, up to this hour no article has not been able to verify any of them.

There were about fifty present and they spent a most delightful evening.

MISS RIE PORTER, Editor.

The meeting of last Saturday will long be remembered by the club members as one of especial pleasure.

The unanimous re-election of our president and vice-president gave evidence of the appreciation of their faithful services. The other officers elected were as follows:

Recording Secretary—Mrs. D. O. Henry.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. W. L. Todder.

Treasurer—Mrs. R. L. White.

Reporter—Miss Rie Porter.

Members of the Board—Mrs. J. D. Radford and Mrs. H. F. Airth.

Mrs. Blackwell's and Miss Wigfield's strict attention to the duties of the offices of treasurer and recording secretary, respectively, called forth much complimentary comment from the club, and their retirement from office is a source of genuine regret.

A few members, anxious to show their love and appreciation of our president in a tangible form, requested Mrs. H. M. Johnson to present her with a bunch of most exquisite carnations (emblem of purity). This she did in her usual gracious manner, and all who heard the few heartfelt remarks wished that the opportunities for hearing Mrs. Johnson talk were more frequent.

After adjournment a social half hour was spent. Angel cake and ice-cream in the club colors was served by the social committee. While enjoying the refreshments, several members favored us with music.

Another item of interest was the suggestion of a picnic at Dowling Park for the club. It was decided that this be the Saturday after Easter.

The Arche Stock Company in "The Starry Flag."

There has been a slight change in the date for the production of "The Starry Flag." Instead of April 22, as has been announced, the date will be changed to about May 1st, exact date to be announced later.

Mrs. H. B. Cook, under whose direction and management the stock company will produce their different plays, is going to make this attraction the best, so far as finished acting and costumes are concerned, that has ever visited Live Oak. The stock company is to give their first play free to the patrons of the auditorium, as they want the people of Live Oak to come in a body and judge for themselves if the company is not worthy of their patronage in the future.

Several of the company have had experience in a professional way and this, with the capable dramatic talent that Live Oak boasts, will only tend to make this production more professional than ever. Several new faces will be seen by those that have been in the habit of attending the plays. Mr. E. H. Hardison will play the lead, instead of Leo Williams as originally announced. Mr. Hardison has taken the lead in many plays, but will be seen to advantage in this play, as he is suited to the part.

A pretty romance is woven around the part of Mark Horton, the young lieutenant, which will be played by Mr. Leslie. At the outbreak of the war Horton is a lieutenant in the local military company; the company is sent to the firing line and Horton is soon promoted to the rank of captain by his bravery and cunning in warfare; during this time he has several opportunities for befriending Juanita, the Cuban lass who now becomes a nurse in the U. S. army; when the war is over and peace is declared he finds that Juanita is an American heiress and the daughter of the commander; he wooed and won her as a simple Cuban lass—what could be a more suitable ending than for him to marry her as an American girl?

Pictures of part of the cast are now on exhibition at Butler Bros.' clothing store; ask the Butlers for your tickets after looking over the cast.

MURDERER OF SHERIFF

Of Leon County is Finally Caught Near Thomasville, Ga.

Thomasville, Ga., March 30.—Mink Morris, the negro who killed Sheriff Langston of Leon county, Florida, last week, was captured early this morning at Coolidge, in this county, and is in jail here. The capture was made by Deputy Sheriff Rehburg of this city, Bailiff Dollar of Grady county and W. H. Moncrion and Joe Potter of Coolidge.

Morris' father-in-law, George Stuart, lives at Coolidge and Deputy Rehburg had heard that the negro was headed for that place, so with Bailiff Dollar he went up yesterday to be on the lookout for him. Last night Morris was seen to enter Stuart's house but the officers decided not to attempt his arrest until daylight. With Moncrion and Potter, they guarded the house all night. Soon after daylight they demanded admittance and Stuart opened the door and let them in. Morris was found quietly sleeping and when awakened he made no resistance at all to the officers.

He was brought to Thomasville this morning and lodged in jail, where he will be kept until requisition papers can be obtained from the Governor of Florida, as he refused to be carried to Tallahassee until they were served.

Morris is a black negro, rather tall and thin and 38 years old. He is very quiet and seems exhausted by the long run from his pursuers. A posse from Florida, who had been pursuing him with dogs, were here yesterday but returned home, having lost the trail.

A reward of $1,100 was offered for the arrest of Morris. Gov. Smith wired this afternoon to hold Morris until requisition papers were received from the Governor of Florida.

Tallahassee, Fla., March 30.—Gov. Gilchrist forwarded requisition papers for Mink Morris, negro slayer of Sheriff W. M. Langston, at noon to Governor Smith and by wire requested Governor Smith to have the prisoner detained at Thomasville. This request was granted.

Arrangements are being made for a speedy trial, Gov. Gilchrist having summoned Judge B. H. Palmer of Lake City, judge of the Third circuit, to hold for that purpose a special term of court, to be convened at Tallahassee, Monday, April 5th.

High School Notes.

Prof. Edwards has made his report to the County School Board for the sixth school month. He reports an enrollment of 447 pupils an average attendance of 312.

The flag for best percentage of attendance was won by Miss Wertz's room. Their percentage of attendance was 93. This room has carried the banner for best attendance every month of the year but one.

The school term will continue only six weeks. Parents should be careful to keep children in school during these weeks. The graduating exercises will be a topic of interest to children and parents from now on until commencement. The members of the graduating class are Aubry Evans, Mima Hankins and Annie Barclay. They will receive their diplomas on the night of May the 10th.

The Sidney Lanier Literary Society has decided to give an entertainment at the close of school to which every one will be invited. It is the first time the society has given an entertainment as a part of the closing exercises of the school. We predict a success for it.

On the Honor Roll 6th Month.
